The Dinner Program

"GLOBALIZATION IS NOT A DIRTY WORD"

- Demystify common myths about globalization.
- Focus on China, her growth, and benefits to our local economy
- The relationships Ohio and local businesses have with China
- What steps you need to take for future globalization success

CHEN FERGUSON

Chen Ferguson, is an Assistant Professor at School of Business of Miami University, Hamilton Campus. A Chinese native, Chen Ferguson worked in the former China State Bureau of Technical Supervision and was the youngest officer ever sent abroad by the Chinese government to represent China at the ISO/IEC conference. She facilitated multinational companies' expansion in China and led the marketing and sale efforts in the Chinese market by doubling the revenue goal within the first year.

After receiving her MBA degree in the U.S, she was hired as a consultant by Siemens, the biggest European company to expand into China.

Switching her career to academia, Chen is a renowned scholar in China related research. Together with the U.S. Department of Commerce, Chen Ferguson co-led the U.S. Boat Industry Delegation to Shanghai for business exploration in April 2006.

Please call John Wenderfer at 513-752-6440 by June 8, or E-Mail @ JWENDERF@STELIZABETH.COM to make your reservations for the dinner meeting
